

HSBC's Custody and Clearing

With a global network across Asia-Pacific, the Middle East, Europe and the Americas, the award-winning Sub-Custody and Clearing business of HSBC Securities Services (SSV) is committed to bringing best practices, state-of-the-art technology, and operational efficiencies to clients worldwide.

HSBC's Sub-Custody and Clearing business operates in 37 markets providing world-class services to global custodians, fund managers and broker dealers in all territories and countries where HSBC has a presence. SSV has the most comprehensive network of any bank in the Middle East with its presence in 11 regional markets. Through our involvement we played an active role in the development of the markets from their start-up to maturity.

HSBC first opened its doors for business in Qatar in 1954. As the largest international bank in the country HSBC has a history of milestones including the installation of the first ATM, the first bank to introduce Custody and Clearing and the first bank to introduce an investment banking platform.

HSBC has been providing sub-custody and clearing services to foreign clients in Qatar since December 1998, when the market first opened to foreign investors. As a business, we have a diverse client base, including international broker dealers, global custodians and government agencies.

Our international experience in the custody business, as well as a diversified client base enables us to anticipate client requirements and provide matching service levels. Our client base in Qatar includes some of the world's largest global custodians and their satisfaction with our services are reflected in their Number 1 rating in Global Custodian Magazine's Review of Agent Banks in Emerging Market.

We have consistently won awards in recognition of our contribution to the industry and in servicing our clients. Some of the latest awards include:

- Winner of "The Asset Triple A Sustainable Investing Awards in 2020 & 2021 in the following three categories, Best sub-custodian, Best Domestic Custodian and Best Fund Administration- Retail Clients.
- The Banker Transaction Banking Awards 2022 – HSBC won the Best Bank for Transaction Services in Asia Pacific.
